DESCRIPTION

FRANKFORD_AVE_IN_FLUX

Dante Sisofo documents a 8.44-kilometer stretch of Frankford Avenue through morning light, capturing 126 monochrome photographs over two and a half hours on June 3, 2026. The route threads through multiple Philadelphia municipalities along this historic corridor, shot entirely on the RICOH GR IV Monochrome. The work surveys storefronts, transit infrastructure, and street life as the avenue transitions from early morning emptiness to midday activity. All 126 frames carry precise geographic coordinates marking the photographer's continuous movement along this north-south arterial.

WHAT IS FLUX

FLUX is an open-source chronological photography publishing system.

36 photographs become one complete numbered issue.

The system generates:

- PDF publication
- contact sheet
- metadata manifest
- printable issue
